

Teacher Trouble

9 The staff of Eden School couldn't decide how to
18 raise money for BBC Children in Need this year.
28 Then Billy, the smallest child in Year One, had a
30 brilliant idea.
40 "Let's do silly things to all the teachers. I bet
48 people will pay good money to see it!"
51 Billy was right.
59 The children happily paid 50p to throw wet
66 sponges at their teachers. The parents gladly
76 paid £1 to draw on the teachers' faces and, at
86 the end of the day, all the teachers joyfully paid
95 £5 to throw cream pies at the headteacher. Then
103 the headteacher threw a cream pie at Billy!
111 The day of 'teacher trouble' was never forgotten.

Quick Questions

1. How much did the parents pay to draw on the teachers' faces?

2. Can you find an adverb in the text?

3. Why do you think the headteacher threw a cream pie at Billy?

4. What do you think will happen next year at Eden School for BBC Children in Need?

Teacher Trouble

9 The staff of Eden School couldn't decide how to
18 raise money for BBC Children in Need this year.
28 Then Billy, the smallest child in Year One, had a
30 brilliant idea.
40 "Let's do silly things to all the teachers. I bet
48 people will pay good money to see it!"
51 Billy was right.
59 The children happily paid 50p to throw wet
66 sponges at their teachers. The parents gladly
76 paid £1 to draw on the teachers' faces and, at
86 the end of the day, all the teachers joyfully paid
95 £5 to throw cream pies at the headteacher. Then
103 the headteacher threw a cream pie at Billy!
111 The day of 'teacher trouble' was never forgotten.

Answers

1. How much did the parents pay to draw on the teachers' faces?

Accept the answer '£1' only.

2. Can you find an adverb in the text?

Accept one of the following: happily; gladly; joyfully; then; never.

3. Why do you think the headteacher threw a cream pie at Billy?

Accept any inferential answer, such as: The headteacher threw a cream pie at Billy because it was his idea to do silly things to the teachers.

4. What do you think will happen next year at Eden School for BBC Children in Need?

Accept any sensible prediction, such as: Next year, for BBC Children in Need, I think Eden School will have another day of 'teacher trouble' because it was so much fun.