

Week beginning 16.11.20

Read/listen to the story 'On the way home' by Jill Murphy.

You will find this story on you tube if you haven't got the story at home.

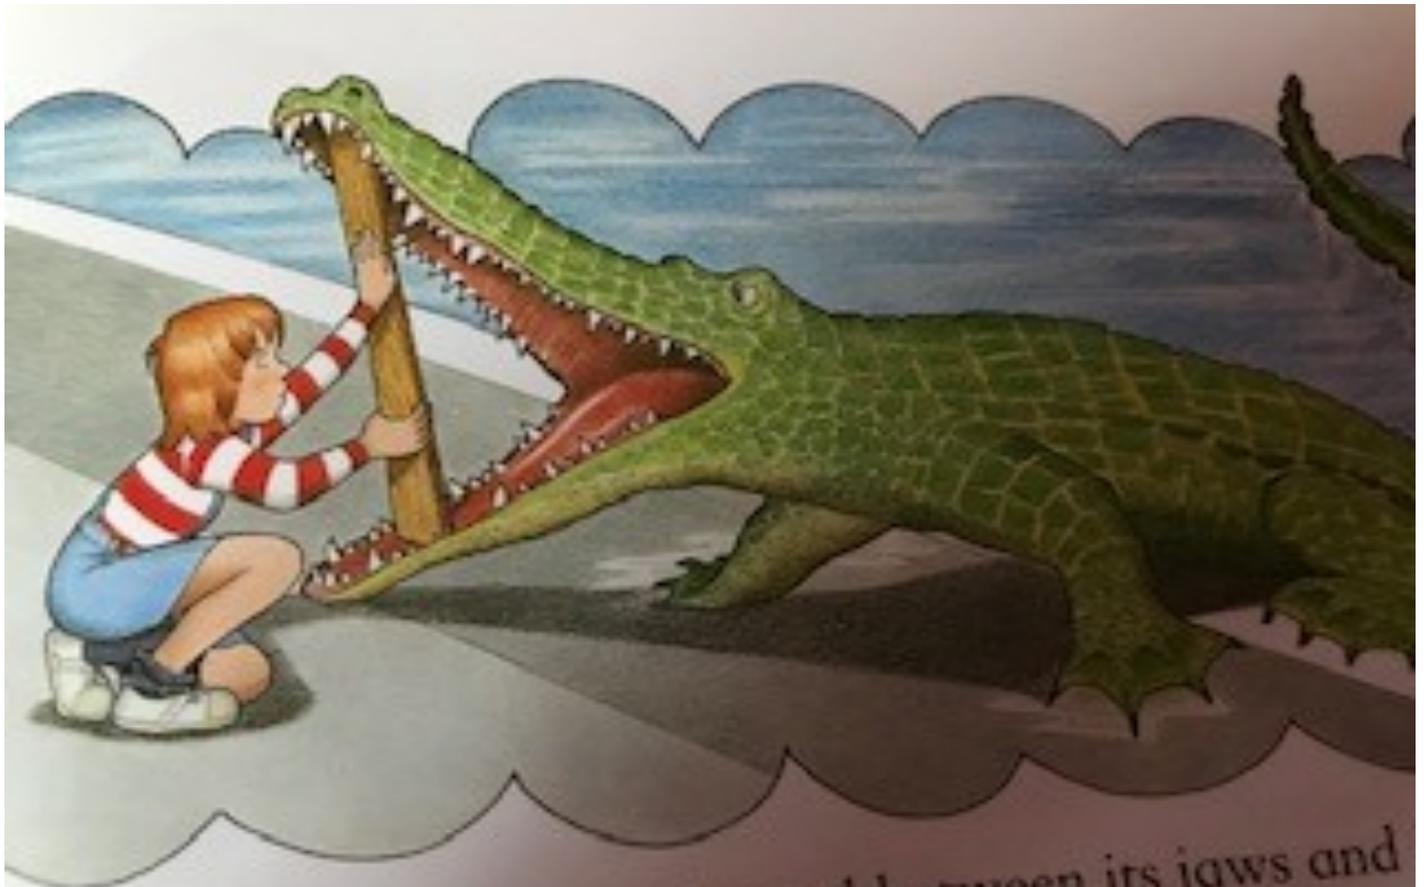

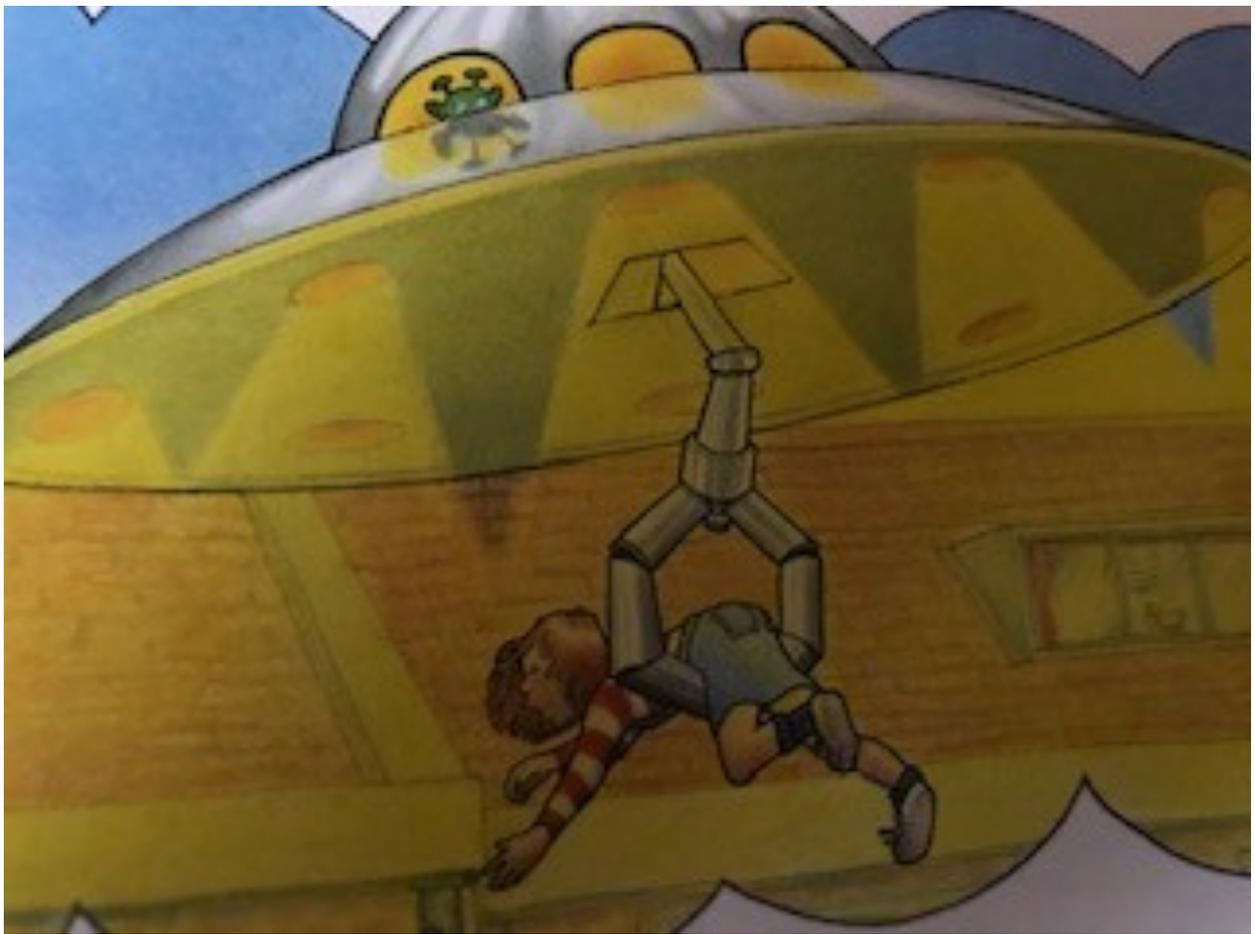

Practise retelling the story in order, you can use these pictures to help you. You could just scroll down the page or print them as smaller pictures. Once you have remembered the order make a story map to help you

Once the story map is complete write the story in full, in sequence. Remember capital letters, full stops, and details to make an interesting story.

Finally have a go at writing an adventure for your journey home. What will you do? Hurt you arm? Foot? What will you tell people has happened? You may like to draw a story map before you write the story.

... I crammed a piece of wood between its jaws and

