

Common exception spelling words for year 2

Here is the list of spellings that we would like all year 2 children to spell correctly by the end of the summer term. As we are a third of the way through the year we would like to see which words we need to focus on because children are finding them tricky. Your spelling focus this week will be on the top six lines of the square. Choose at least 10 words you would like to practise daily and then check these on Monday next week
